JACK JEAN LEADS
KITTENS IN WIN
OVER MARSHALLFlashing Owensboro Fullback
Helps Frosh to Overcome
Early LeadYEARLINGS COME BACK
TO COP 12-7 VICTORYWest Virginia Freshmen Out-play Greenies of Kentucky in First Half

Led by Jack Jean, the flashing, slashing fullback from Owensboro, the frosh football team, Saturday night, overcame a one touchdown lead held by Marshall and came back to win the game by two touchdowns in the last half to the tune of 12-7.

The lighter Marshall team clearly outplayed the Kittens in the first half and scored five first downs to the two made by the Big Green team. The Kentuckians seemed slow to start and made several misplays in the first quarter, but seemed to regain life in the second stanza. Tobin, Marshall guard, was the line star for the visitors, while Rupert and Omer were the best for the young 'cats in the forewall. Ingole and Kenkaid carried practically all the burden of the Marshall offense on their shoulders. Jean was the star of the greenie backs, with Saunders and Barney also doing their share to clinch the game.

The first quarter was scoreless, with the teams feeling each other out, but in the second period Marshall received a punt on the Kentucky 46-yard line and a penalty, a 30 yard pass and Ingole's 18 yard dash to the goal produced the Marshall score. Kinkaid kicked the goal which gave Marshall its seven points.

Late in the first half the Kittens awoke to the fact that they were behind and were being outplayed. They started a drive and had carried the ball to Marshall's 12-yard stripe before the half ended.

The first frosh marker came early in the third quarter, after Jean ran the kickoff back to his own 40 yard line. The Big Green in a steady march to the goal made its first touchdown. Saunders passed to Rupert for a first down, Marshall here intercepted a Kitten pass, but on the second play after this the frosh recovered and Jean went 35 yards off tackle for the score. The attempt of the frosh to buck the ball across for the extra point failed by inches. The crowd thought the attempt was successful and cheered lustily, but the officials (Continued on Page Four)

Catholic Men Students
Will Have BanquetLexington K. of C. Will Give Columbus Day
Affair

The Catholic male students of the university will be the guests of the Knights of Columbus, Bluegrass council, at the annual Columbus day banquet, October 12, in the ballroom of the Lafayette hotel. All Catholic male students of the university are cordially invited to attend as an interesting program has been arranged by the committee in charge.

Students will receive invitations from the council through the mail either the latter part of this week or the first part of next week. Those desiring further information are asked to get in touch with Joe S. Reister or James R. Miner, who are in charge of the arrangements.

The affair is the second of its kind and last year more than 150 Catholic male students attended the banquet as the guests of the Knights of Columbus. The banquet this year promises to be an even greater success as the members of the order are doing everything in their power to make this entertainment one that will be long remembered.

News Bulletin Staff
Appointed For Year

Lillian Warren, Monroe, North Carolina, and Marjorie Hoagland, New Castle, have been appointed editors of this year's campus news bulletin, according to an announcement made by Prof. Enoch Grehan of the department of Journalism. Joan Carigan, last year's staff will take the newly-created position of director of the bulletin.

The appointment of this staff is made every year at this time. The installation of a director of the Bulletin Board is, however, a departure from the old system, and is brought about by the increasing size of the university. The duty of these girls is to produce each week a bulletin of events that are to happen the succeeding week. The news covers every department of the university.

Last year the bulletin was put out by Joan Carigan and Elaine Bonnell.

Applications Due

The board of student publications will meet tomorrow to fill three vacancies on university publications. The positions which will be filled are editor-in-chief of the Kernel and editor and business manager of the Kentuckian, university annual.

Students who wish to fill these positions are being cautioned to file their petitions by noon tomorrow. The applications should be addressed to Clarence Yeager, secretary of the board and may be delivered to him or left with Prof. Enoch Grehan in the Journalism department.

A technical error resulted in the positions being declared vacant and the meeting will be held to correct the mistake.

U. K. ENGINEERS
WILL STUDY COALCooperative Arrangement Is Made Between College and Railway

NEW LAB IS FORMED

Through a cooperative arrangement between the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway Company and the Engineering College of the university, the engineering laboratories will undertake an exhaustive study of the adaptability of coals obtained from 16 mines located along the lines belonging to the railroad. The existing testing facilities have been increased to accommodate the investigations and the contemplated studies have begun.

An interesting feature of the combustion studies will be the observation of the smoke densities under certain conditions of firing by means of the electric eye which involves the use of the photo-electric cell and its accessories. This instrument is sensitive enough to record a puff of cigarette smoke.

Complete boiler testing equipment has been added to the new laboratory, which is located in the service building of the department of buildings and grounds. The engineers will run tests ascertaining the calorimeter determination and both the approximate and ultimate chemical boiler tests using stokers as the method of firing will be included in the study. The results obtained from this cooperative work will be embodied in a comprehensive report and made available for general distribution among the engineering fraternity.

The general committee in charge of this work consists of Pres. F. L. McVey, chairman; Dean F. P. Anderson and Prof. L. S. O'Bannon, of the Engineering College and L. B. Allen, C. G. Ritchie, and F. I. Marriott of the Chesapeake and Ohio.

CORRECTION:

A story, appearing in last Friday's Kernel, concerning the new fencing academy being formed by Melvin Applebaum, fencing instructor, carried the erroneous statement that fencing had been discontinued as part of the university curriculum. Only women's classes have been discontinued; an additional class over the university's schedule is open to men. The Kernel regrets this error.

ANNUAL PHOTOGRAPHS

Photographs for the 1932 Kentuckian, university annual, must be taken during the period beginning yesterday to Monday, October 5, according to an announcement by Frank Stone, acting editor. A representative of Young and Carl, Cincinnati photographers is in the basement of the men's gymnasium. Seniors may appear for photographs at any time during the period.

Although any university students whose pictures will appear in the annual may apply for sittings Monday, specified days have been set aside for members of fraternity and sorority groups. Official days for the organizations are:

Monday, September 28: Alpha Delta Theta, Alpha Gamma Delta, Alpha Gamma Rho, and Alpha Sigma Phi.

Tuesday, September 29: Alpha Xi Delta, Chi Omega, Alpha Tau Omega, and Campus Club.

Wednesday, September 30: Delta Delta Delta, Delta Zeta, Delta Chi, and Delta Tau Delta.

Thursday, October 1: Kappa Delta, Kappa Kappa Gamma, Kappa Alpha, and Kappa Sigma.

Friday, October 2: Zeta Tau Alpha, Lambda Chi Alpha, Pi Kappa Alpha, and Phi Delta Theta.

Saturday, October 3: Phi Sigma Kappa, Phi Psi Phi, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, and Sigma Beta Xi.

Monday, October 5: Sigma Nu, Sigma Chi, Tau Epsilon Pi, and Triangle.

DR. JOHN FINLEY
TO GIVE ADDRESS
AT DEDICATIONFormal Ceremonies for Opening of New Library to Be Held October 23INVITATIONS ARE BEING ISSUED BY COMMITTEEExercises Will Be Conducted on Lawn in Front of Building

The principal address at the formal dedication ceremonies for the new library, the afternoon of October 23 on the lawn in front of the library building, will be made by Dr. John H. Finley, associate editor of the New York Times. Dr. Finley is famous as an educator, author, and editor.

Invitations numbering several thousand are being sent out this week by members of the library committee, headed by Dr. L. L. Dantzer, chairman.

The library is designed in the most recent style of library architecture. Spacious reading rooms for various groups, periodical reading rooms, and a graduate reading room comprise a few of the modern facilities provided. The addition of cubicles makes possible private study with access to a limitless number of books. The graduate library room and the seminar rooms are located on the fourth floor. Most of the department libraries have been transferred to the main building. To take care of the needs of the students, the number of librarians has been increased until the staff at present totals 14.

Edward A. Henry, librarian at the University of Cincinnati, will be the official representative of the American Library association and will make a short address. A complete program of the dedication will be announced in an early issue of the Kernel.

Doctor Finley, who will give the principal address, was born in Grand Ridge, Ill., in 1863 and was educated at Knox College. For a period of eight years he was president of the New York State university. Doctor Finley took an active part in the world war, being head of the American Red Cross in Palestine and the Near East. He was decorated many times, among his list of decorations being that of the French Legion of Honor. After the war he became associate editor of the New York Times.

SUKY TO HOLD
FINAL MEETINGPlans for Sale at Maryville
Football Game Will Be
Perfectured by University
Pep Organization

Suky will hold its final meeting at 5 o'clock this afternoon to perfect plans for selling at the Maryville game. Fraternities and sororities are to be urged to aid the circle in selling refreshments at the game according to Ted Cassidy, president of the pep organization. Trophies will be awarded to the organizations whose members sell the most during the football and basketball seasons.

Tryouts for Suky will be conducted in the same way as has been the custom for the past several years. Persons trying out should present themselves at the refreshment stand under the stands on the south side of Stoll field at least a half hour before the beginning of the game, Saturday. They will be given candy and soft drinks to sell to fans.

Selection to the circle is based on amount of sales and faithfulness in appearing for games. Elections are held after the high school basketball tournament in March and successful candidates are pledged to the circle at the annual spring dance. Initiation is conducted at the last meeting of the school year.

In the past it has been the custom for fraternities and sororities to send their pledges to Suky as candidates for the organization, and this plan is expected to be continued according to members of the order.

Executive Committee
Discusses Reports

The executive committee of the alumni association met at 6:30 last night at the home of Dr. E. C. Elliot. Several reports that had been previously prepared were read and discussed. The committee on alumni clubs is confident of installing a new alumni club at Frankfort some time in October. The work of the newly formed educational committee which will act as a form of publicity bureau for the university was made known, and a report of the convention of alumni secretaries of middle western universities was read.

SuKy Will Stage Riotous Pep Meeting
Friday Night Before Maryville Game

By GILBERT KINGSBURY

The most colorful, gorgeous, and riotous pep meeting ever held at the university will be staged Friday night before the Maryville game. The girls of the university are to be turned loose and will not be expected to return to their trundle beds until curfew tolls the hour of midnight.

All of which means that Dean Blanding has put her O.K. on SuKy Circle's plan to have the first pep meeting of the year at the first midnight theatre party of the year at the Kentucky theatre. Everything seems to point to an affair that undergraduates will long remember.

Ted Cassidy, president of the pep organization, Dean Blanding, Dean Melcher, President McVey, Mr. H. C. Bamberger of the Kentucky theatre, and even Vina Delmar, the Liberty, authoress have combined to make the pep meeting the biggest thing to go over the top since the A. E. F. went over into No Man's Land.

The university band, the best band in Dixie, will be on hand to make the well-known welkin ring. Slade Carr and his group of expect to be on hand for the midnight party. The Kentucky will present the Saturday show at this C. A. and its potentialities for College Women." Mrs. McVey has for some time been actively interested in the work of the organization.

Under its new secretary, Augusta Roberts, of Decatur, Georgia, the Y. W. C. A. is making a determined effort to carry on a program sufficiently varied to appeal in some part to every woman on the campus. Already several "get acquainted parties" have been given, and officers of the organization feel that a good start has been made.

Officers are: president, Eleanor Smith; vice-president, Eleanor Dawson; secretary, Martha Carlton, and treasurer, Mary Allison Threlkeld.

The year's calendar of social affairs of the university will be discussed and arranged by the members of student social affairs committee, which will meet for its first fall session this afternoon at 3 o'clock in the office of the dean of women, Sarah G. Blanding. Members of the faculty social committee are: chairman, C. R. Melcher; G. C. Bassett, A. J. Olney, Sarah G. Blanding, Edna M. Giles, and Owen R. Meredith. The committee is subject to call by the chairman.

The calendar of university dances will include dates for the freshman dance, the sophomore dance, cadet hops, club dances, senior ball, the junior prom, the military ball, the Pan-Hellenic dance, and fraternity dances and sorority formal and tea dances.

According to the social rules of the Women's Self-Government association, "no social organization shall give more than one formal entertainment or dance during the year; afternoon dances shall begin at 3 o'clock and end at 6; and no dance shall be scheduled before Thanksgiving nor within examination periods."

Six U. K. Students Are In Accident

Six university students narrowly escaped serious injury or death Saturday afternoon when the car in which they were riding, driven by George Wilson, Alpha Sigma Phi, was struck and overturned by another car at the intersection of Rose and Maxwell streets. With the coach resting on its top and the motor still running, the owner and his five companions crawled out through broken windows and wreckage, all unhurt save for a few minor cuts and bruises.

Mrs. William Uttinger, driver and only occupant of the coupe which crashed into Wilson's car was unhurt. Other occupants of Wilson's car were I. W. Lyle, Henry Durham, Berkley Davis, members of Alpha Sigma Phi fraternity, and Pindell Pearce and "Shorty" Wash of the men's dormitory.

W. D. Funkhouser
Leaves For AtlantaThree-Day Session of Southern Conference Committee to Rule on Eligibility

Dean W. D. Funkhouser left Saturday for Atlanta to attend a three-day session of the executive committee of the Southern Conference Association of which he is secretary. The assembly is the annual fall meeting which rules on the eligibility of protested football players. There are no University of Kentucky players under question.

Dean Funkhouser met Sunday with the officials' and coaches' committee to correct irregularities in various football schedules of southern conference teams.

The campus literally will be covered with tickets as every sorority house, fraternity house, and dormitory in Lexington will have a representative handling the sale. In addition the box office at the Kentucky will remain open until the last yelling student makes his way down the aisle to the last vacant seat in the house.

According to members of the circle, the band will meet at the dormitory at 10 o'clock sharp and will begin the march downtown to the strains of "On, On U. of K." The students in cars, and on foot, will follow the band. The route of the parade will take the marchers down Rose to Maxwell, over Maxwell to Limestone to Main, and over Main to the Kentucky theatre.

Mr. H. C. Bamberger, manager of the Kentucky, has announced

Classes for Benefit of Women Students

Classes in tap-dancing, contract bridge, ballroom dancing, and essentials of charm are included in the tentative program of the Y. W. C. A. to be explained at its first vesper service of the year at 7 o'clock tonight in Patterson recreation hall. All women students of the university are invited.

The association will also offer courses in "How to be more intelligent about the depression and in one's relations to the merging world community." Later, in the fall, it hopes to have an all-university circus, in which all organizations, including the faculty will have definite parts.

Mrs. F. L. McVey will speak at the meeting on the subject, "Y. W. C. A. and Its Potentialities for College Women." Mrs. McVey has for some time been actively interested in the work of the organization.

Under its new secretary, Augusta Roberts, of Decatur, Georgia, the Y. W. C. ACCOUNTS FOR RISE"Depression" Fails to Decrease Registration for
First Semester

Despite the widespread depression throughout the country and the world, the enrollment of students at the university Monday afternoon broke all records in the history of the institution. When the university closed its doors for the semester at 5 o'clock Monday afternoon, 3,230 students had matriculated, an increase of 30 over the total recorded on the final date last year.

The enrollment at the university, which was expected to show a slight decrease from the record enrollment of 1930, continued to mount each day since the regular registration period and increased materially on the last day. With a marked rise in the number of upperclassmen and graduate students enrolled, the university more than made up for a deficiency of approximately 200 in the freshman class.

Monday was also the last date on which a student could drop a subject without a grade of "E" being marked against him. Classes were also closed to newcomers and will proceed for the remainder of the year as organized at the present time.

Figures given in the report do not include those who are registered in extension classes held throughout the state, nor do they include those taking correspondence courses through the extension office. The extension classes are expected to have an increased enrollment, and students remaining out of school because of the depression are expected to enroll in correspondence courses in greater numbers than before.

Of the 3,230 students enrolled at the university, all but 301 are registered from Kentucky. One gives (Continued on Page Four)

Farmers Hold Annual
Festival at U. K. FarmApproximately 1,500 Persons View Exhibits of Crops

The annual Harvest Festival held last Thursday and Friday at the Robinson Substation, a fifteen-thousand acre farm of the university located at Quicksand, revealed prosperous results from many farmers of the country. Approximately fifteen hundred persons viewed exhibits of the farmers of several mountain counties.

According to Professor L. J. Horlacher, professor of the Agriculture college, who attended the fair, pumpkins and squashes were shown that weighed as much as 50 pounds. There were stalks of corn and sorghum exhibited, he said, that were 16 and 18 feet tall. Also, according to his report, potatoes were produced equal in quality to those produced in Maine and Idaho. Superintendent Roger W. Jones of the substation prophesied the possible production of one hundred bushels of corn to the acre in one of the fields of the farm.

There were also exhibits from some of the classes of Junior Club members. There were as many as 60 entries in each class.

Among those from the university who attended the fair were Pres. and Mrs. Frank McVey and Dean Thomas Cooper and Professor L. J. Horlacher of the agriculture college. Part of the university band with its director, Elmer G. Sulzer, also attended.

PHI SIGMA KAPPA ELECTION

Officers chosen at a recent meeting for the quarter ending December 15, have been announced by Phi Sigma Kappa. Edwin Milliken will head the fraternity as president. Others elected are: Howard Baker, vice president; Elmer Newman, secretary; John Bertram, auditor; Joe Conley, treasurer. The pledging of Homer Brandenburg, Beattyville, was also announced.

STUDENT HURT IN CRASH

A. A. Daugherty, feature editor of The Kernel, suffered slight bruises about the face when the car which he was driving collided with another car on Versailles pike early Monday morning. After treatment at the university dispensary Daugherty returned to his home in Versailles.

THE HONOR SYSTEM

"The most cherished of Carolina traditions is just about ready to pass into the junk heap," is the editorial comment of The Gamecock, student newspaper of the University of South Carolina. Cheating on examinations, stealing and other evidences of dishonesty are cited in the editorial as proving that the students at the institutions are incapable of supporting the honor system.

In placing blame for the failure of the system the paper says:

It is not the honor system's fault that it is failing at Carolina, but the blame may be laid directly to the students themselves, and on the high schools from whence they come. A careful survey will reveal, we believe, that more cheating is done by freshmen than by any others. However, they can't help it. It is fashionable to cheat in most high schools. And you can't teach an old dog new tricks. A student gets through high school by cheating and when he comes to college, he can't get through any other way except cheating.

The Kernel agrees with the Gamecock that the tendency for college students to cheat on examinations may be traced to the training, or lack of training, which they have had in high school. We well remember that in high school the successful cribber was considered clever, and we remember hoping that our college life would be far different.

Although the University does not have in operation the honor system The Kernel believes that cheating is prevalent, that any improvement in the condition which exists must come from the students themselves and that this change will be one basic in their fundamental attitude toward their university life.

It is hard to make a person see that cheating is wrong when that person does not see it as naturally as he sees that murder is wrong. Since we cannot ask students to ostracize that which they believe legitimate, our only hope is that some day a group of undergraduates will arise who inherently have a distinct distaste for even the milder forms of dishonesty. We cannot change the present group by preaching to them, by condemning them or by ridiculing them.

It perhaps follows that the sort of person who cheats on examinations is the sort who can hear the adverse opinion of many others concerning himself and remain untouched.

PEP MEETING

An elaborate program is planned for the first pep meeting of the year which will be held in the Kentucky theater Friday evening. The meeting is part of a theater party for the benefit of the SuKy band fund, and deserves the support of every student of the university.

It previously has been pointed out in the editorial columns of The Kernel that the success or failure of the football team this year will be greatly affected by the support or non-support rendered by the student body.

In attending the meeting at the theater Friday night students will be receiving full entertainment value from the regular Saturday motion picture, which will be given a showing Friday evening in order to draw a large crowd of undergraduates. In addition students will be supporting the Wildcats.

If there is any sincere wish on the part of students for a good football team this fall they must cooperate with the players and the coaching staff at the first and at every other pep meeting.

DEBATING TRYOUTS

Approximately 20 aspirants for the debating team of the university were present for the annual tryouts which were held in McVey hall Friday night. Additional tryouts will be held tonight, under the direction of Coach W. R. Sutherland.

Debating undoubtedly is one of the most valuable phases of extra-curricular activity for which freshmen are eligible and that this is being recognized was demonstrated by the large number appearing for places on the team Friday night.

The police which we so much desire and which we are told is possible only through entrance in widely and cheaply advertised "personality courses" cannot but be a natural attribute of the good debater.

Although this police may not become evident for several months after an aspirant becomes a member of the team it inevitably will follow if a serious study of proper public speaking methods as practiced at the university is made.

Valuable experience is given the members of the university team on the trips which are made to the various high schools of the state. Speakers appear before audiences in all parts of Kentucky, and by this method become accustomed to speaking to different types of persons, learn which methods are successful before all audiences and which bits of technique must be varied to suit the assemblage.

To The Kernel debating is more of a glorified curricular activity than an extra-curricular activity. In it students, whether or not they are ambitious to speak, should take an interest.

Those students of the university who have advanced beyond the stage of nickel weeklies will appreciate and enjoy Letters, quarterly publication of the English department. The magazine is devoted to that literature which the college student should like, and which cannot but benefit its readers. The publication has received recognition by men of letters throughout the country and has been accepted as one of the important phases of modern literature.

Writers for the magazine are members of the university faculty, students, and others who are competent to contribute to a publication of this type. Any student of the university who desires to contribute to the magazine may submit his work, and, if it measures up to the standards set by Letters, be assured that it will appear in print.

As an organ of the institution Letters deserves the support of the student body. Subscription can be made by filling out the blank which is printed in The Kernel.

ELECTION ERROR

It is regrettable that an error in the election of the editor and business manager of The Kentucky Kernel and the editor of The Kernel occurred last March, but it is commendable that the board of student publications, when it learned of the oversight, at once took steps to correct it.

The Kernel believes that similar mistakes have occurred at many times in the past, and that a more effective system should be employed to prevent their recurrence in the future. The university regulation which has been enforced by the board of publications should be strictly adhered to in every other line of extra-curricular activity.

JEST AMONG US

The only thing we love to see someone in love who has always asserted that he or she would never be like that.

The Kernel predicts the bloodiest student elections in the history of the school. We learned the art of prediction in one easy lesson.

When you see two students drinking the same coke through two straws don't think that they are in love. Remember the depression.

"I'll give you something to remember me by," say the varsity gridders to the freshmen as they step in their faces.

CAN YOU WRITE?

The editorial columns are open to those students who desire to express themselves on matters pertinent to the university and university life. In the past this column has been extremely popular, and many communications have been received by the editor.

Any subject is open to discussion and The Kernel will welcome students' communications embodying their thought and their opinions. The letters must be signed but the signatures will not be published if the writers desire to withhold them.

UNTRUE

You asked for lilies on that quiet day
When you should die, and I begin to miss

The voice I loved so, and should kiss
Your silent lips, and touch your pale hands of clay

That pressed so lovingly, and lay
Once warm in mine; when all the bliss

I knew became a stark dead chrysalis,
And hot tears came as sad I turned away.

Accept these blooms since you are dead to me,
The best of me is dead too, is how I feel;

My tears are cold, and hurt instead of heal,
As might-have-beens displace the things-to-be.

I'll have no kisses as the years drag on,
Like those remembered now that you are gone.

—DOROTHY STROTHER.

FAIR WARNING

Should you come to love another,
I would strive—I hope—to cover
All my heartache, all my pain,
All my envy of her gain.

Each regret and every fear,
That fond wish to keep you near
I would bury—bury deep—
That untroubled by your sleep.

And farewells would be so spoken
You'd not guess my heart was broken,
Should you come to love another,
Spare me contact with your lover.

Lest my anguish, peeping through,
Should contrive to torture two.

—DOROTHY STROTHER.

Brief Bits on the Big Shots

Kappa Virginia Waddle says that her organization is not completely ruined this year because rush week turned out so badly but that next year, when 17 seniors leave, it will be in a helluva shape, all of which we predicted when we were freshmen. . . . Fiddlet Jacq Robey is angling for the diary spot on this rag. . . . Kimegas Shelby Spears and Tillie Ferguson were among the reasons that the organization finally pledged some girls. . . . Kappa Theo Tebbis can't understand how they did it. . . . Fiddlet Hal Murray that she broke a date with him because he had only asked for it "out of courtesy". . . . Fiddlet Sue Whitehouse told the triangular ladies not to put the ribbons over the Sigal pin which she was wearing. . . . Kappas lost nine bids, two of which should not count say they, because after the freshmen refused them the organization decided that it did not matter anyway.

Kimegas Have Fun and a Flop

Members of Chi Omega sorority Friday evening entertained with a buffet supper. All the mugs were there and ballyhooed into believing that the rushes were not your writing and the only three persons who are perhaps the only three persons on the campus who believed that the little girls should be rated on a par with Kappa. . . .

Not a Prayer for Our Fals

It seems that the Kimegas and 3delt were so in awe of the rushing ability of the Kappas that the two organizations held several joint sessions during rush week in order to be certain that the ladies would choose anything but Kappa.

"Of Course I'm Clean..."

3delt Oozie Weathers was asked if she attended Sunday school during her younger years by an instructor. After her affirmative reply he asked if she had been a virtuous young lady then.

"Yes—still am," she said.

Just Another Crudity

3 delts Chris Johnson, Floy Bowling, Oozie Weathers, and others are determined that the pledges of the organization must continue the actives far from laudable practice of munching chewing gum. At the seraglio the other night they told the freshmen that they must learn to twirl their gum, gave them lessons in how to do it.

Piecaps Are Happy

Piecap pledge Jean (we are not sure whether that is his first or last name) distinguished himself at the frosh game the other night. The reason we do not know his name is that the good brothers never mentioned it, their repeated advice being to "watch that Piecap freshman".

Forty per cent of the teachers on the island of Porto Rico spent the past summer attending schools in the United States.

Entrancing Beauty Of Dahlia Garden Attracts Spectators

By ALEX McMIV

Entrancing beauty, grace of form, and a wealth of loveliness; a selection of bloom in a spectrum of coloring; a spot wherein one may spend an idle hour wandering among the royalty of nature.

Such is a poor attempt at a word picture of the Derrill W. Hart Dahlia garden in front of Dicker Hall. Here is a plot of ground enclosed by an ivy entwined fence flourishes one of the most complete dahlia gardens in the south. They were a gift of Derrill W. Hart, a graduate of the university and now a member of the publishing staff of Doubleday, Doran and Company.

Mr. Hart is the Chairman of the Executive Committee of the American Dahlia Society.

He secured the blooms from nurseries throughout the United States, presenting them as a gift to the College of Engineering. The enclosure and uniquely carved gate were made by students at the university. Each of the dahlia plants has the name and identification number. Near the entrance has been placed a bulletin board which will enable dahlia enthusiasts to identify any plant in the garden. There are 120 of the very latest dahlia developments, and they are being meticulously cared for by attendants. Every attempt is being made to keep down early blooming and to produce late blooming plants.

Hooray!

Cheers arise involuntarily in our throat for the first time since our initiation as a theater columnist. Flesh-and-blood entertainment is the reason. And excellent entertainment at that. Packed and pleased houses bring an additional thrill. A big hand to Singer's Midgets and thanks to the Ben Ali for a splendid presentation.

"Sidewalks of New York," the stage show.

Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer picture currently at the Strand, offers Buster Keaton in his latest outburst of stonefaced slapstick comedy. Anita Page and Cliff Edwards ("Ukelele Ike") are the principal members of the supporting cast. Keaton is seen as a philanthropic millionaire who builds a gymnasium for children in a tenement district of New York.

He meets a girl while looking for something to do with his money which predates his erecting the gymnasium. Much of the usual routine is employed in order that everyone concerned. "Sidewalks of New York" is not as good as some of Keaton's other comedies. His over-application of his famous falling down gag failed to create any roars in Sunday's audience.

Forget Depression

It is our firm conviction that the Four Marx Brothers, now playing at the Kentucky in "Monkey Business," a Paramount picture, provide a cure for this depression malady. The delightful feature of it all is that the cure is so pleasant to take. We hereby go on record as giving a solemn bit of instruction to both of our readers: see "Monkey Business." It is silly to attempt to outline a plot or tell you anything of the dramatic structure of a Marx picture. It just isn't being done. If you saw "The Cocoanuts" or "Animal Crackers", or both, you know what to expect and that is hilarity. If you missed the brother's previous cinema, you have a rare treat in store for you. Really, "Monkey Business" is too funny for words so we'll stop. Don't you simply detest puns?

Footlights

You will please pardon our impatience to speak well of Singer's Midgets before its turn came in the column, but, when we have a stage show and a good one at that, we find it difficult to contain ourselves. The show appears at the Ben Ali theater all week and goes on your "must" list. Here is a theatrical troupe that knows the trick of selling itself over the footlights. Genuine entertainment is presented by talented people. What more can a lover of stage entertainment ask? The fact that the actors are midgets is an item for consideration. However, the presentation is one that is far removed from the type usually catalogued as "freak." It is lamentable that such an exquisite production should be handicapped with a master-of-ceremonies who performs little better than would an average freshman engineer in the same capacity. We say, however, that despite this, Singer's Midgets should be seen. A motion picture program is also offered but take our advice and arrange to see only the stage show.

Although it has one of the smallest of all standing armies among the great nations of the world, the United States last year spent more than any other nation on armaments. Other nations spent for arms in the order: Soviet Union, France, Great Britain, Italy, Japan, India, Germany, Spain.

One of a group of five famous American portraits on exhibition at the Metropolitan Museum is one by Samuel Morse, inventor of the telegraph, who was an artist before he took up invention.

We know why men smoke PIPES

WOMEN don't smoke pipes. They're not the style for women. But pipes are the style for men, and more than that, a pipe and good tobacco gives a man greater smoking pleasure than tobacco in any other form.

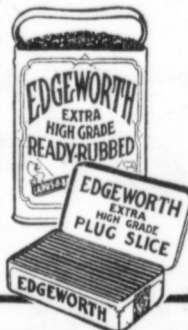

A pipe is not for girls

In 42 out of 54 American colleges and universities Edgeworth is the favorite pipe tobacco. Cool slow-burning burleys give this fine tobacco exactly the character that college men like best of all.

Try a tin of Edgeworth yourself! You can buy Edgeworth wherever good tobacco is sold. Or if you prefer, you can get a special sample packet free: write to Larus & Bro. Co., 105 S. 22d St., Richmond, Va., and ask for it.

EDGEWORTH SMOKING TOBACCO

Edgeworth is a blend of fine old burleys, with its natural savor enhanced by Edgeworth's distinctive and exclusive eleventh process. Buy Edgeworth anywhere in two forms—Edgeworth Ready-Rubbed and Edgeworth Plug Slice. All sizes, 15¢ packet package to $1.50 pound humidor tin.

Miss Nelson Honored at Camp

Miss Millie Nelson, who for the last two months has been at Camp Nakanawa, in Maryland, Tenn., returned last night bringing with her the highest honor which the camp can bestow. The honor, in the form of a silver loving cup, was presented to Miss Nelson at the annual Trophy Night which marks the close of the camp for another year.

The cup is presented each year to the girl who, in the opinion of the officials and counselors, has displayed characteristics which most nearly typify the ideal Nakanawa girl. There is one prerequisite which qualifies a girl as a candidate for the cup. She must, in some previous year of her camp life, have won the letter "N", the next highest honor in line after the cup and carrying with it practically the same meaning. Miss Nelson won her "N" two years ago. During each summer that she has been at Nakanawa, Miss Nelson has been a leader among the girls and has taken an outstanding part in all the camp activities. She is to be heartily congratulated upon this signal honor which has come to her.

Phi Beta Meeting

Kappa chapter of Phi Beta held its first meeting of the year at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon in the reading room of Patterson hall. Plans were made for the annual rushing parties, which will be held during the next two weeks.

Briefs From Enemy Camps

MARYVILL VS VOLS

Knoxville, Tenn., Sept. 26.—Led by Shack Allen, smashing halfback who reeled off 53 and 23 yard runs for touchdowns, the University of Tennessee defeated Maryville College, 33 to 0, today in its first game of the season.

Gene "Wild Bull" McEver, sensational back of 1928 and 1929 returned to the Tennessee lineup after a season off with an injured knee, weaved his way through the opposing team for several good gains, and scored the first touchdown.

W. & L.

Lynchburg, Va., Sept. 26.—Washington and Lee smothered a fighting Hampton-Sydney eleven here today with a series of plunges, running plays and passes to win its first game of the season, 32 to 0.

The Generals were inaugurating Coach De Hart's new football system and made it look good for early season play against the weak opposition, piling up 18 first downs to their opponents' two.

Three of the touchdowns came on passes and two on plunges. Several W. & L. sophomore backs looked impressive.

V. P. I.

BLACKSBURG, VA., Sept. 26.—Driving hard throughout the opening half, V. P. I. gained consistently in all periods today to defeat King College, 33 to 0, in the opening game of the football season.

CRIMSON TIDE

TUSCALOOSA, Ala., Sept. 26.—Alabama's Crimson Tide rolled up a 42 to 6 victory over Howard College in its first appearance under Coach Frank Thomas today.

Getting off to a slow start the Tide gathered force in the second half. Howard's lone touchdown, the result of a 57-yard pass came in the third period. Sweeney tossed the ball 34 yards to Parks who raced 23 yards more to cross the goal line.

DUKE

COLUMBIA, S. C., Sept. 26.—Led by Earl Clary, a galloping halfback, the University of South Carolina Gamecocks triumphed over Duke University by a 7 to 0 score here today.

For the first time since 1929, Wallace Wade, the new Duke coach who went to the North Carolina institution from Alabama, witnessed defeat of one of his teams.

The lone score came early in the second period. A Duke fumble gave the ball to South Carolina 18 yards from the goal line. Then Clary, a sophomore, after a series of plays, scored the touchdown.

FLORIDA—NO GAME

Gainesville, Sept. 26.—The problem of picking an eleven that might be regarded as a "first team" for the University of Florida this fall, has been a tough one for Coach Charlie Bachman; however, the first light on this issue was shed this week when the Gator mentor called: Ends, Parnell and Hall; tackles, Clyde McClellan and Jenkins; guards, Forsyth and Bernhard; center, Ferrazzi; quarterback, Buck; halfbacks, Rogers and "Bo" McClellan; fullback, Silsby.

Seven of the above eleven won football letters last fall, though Jenkins, now at tackle, won his spurs at the fullback position.

The sophomores in the line-up are Clyde McClellan, backfield candidate until shifted a week ago to tackle; Drayton Bernhard, freshman back last year, but shifted in spring practice to the line; Bill Ferrazzi, who played frosh tackle last fall, and Shaw Buck, quarterback last season on the "Baby Gators" whose position remains unchanged.

Just whether this is the eleven Mentor Bachman will pick to open his schedule October 3 against North Carolina State cannot be determined. There are strong possibilities of four or more changes.

Tennessee vs Maryville, 33-0. W. & L. vs Hampton Sydney, 32-0.

Maryland vs Washington College, 3-0.

V. P. I. vs King College, 33-0. Alabama vs Howard, 42-6.

South Carolina vs Duke, 7-0. Richmond vs V. M. I., 7-0.

Florida, no game.

Rome, Italy, (IP)—Football, which as a professional game appears to be the most popular great Italian sport, would be of less importance here, it was revealed recently, were it not for the large number of excellent football material which is imported annually from the Argentine, where in 25 years football has grown by leaps and bounds.

Within the last 18 months 31 Argentine football players have come to Italy under contract at salaries of from $4,250 to $12,500.

In a game between Rome and Genoa recently seven Argentines played on one side and four on the other.

All of the players, it happens, are sons or grandsons of Italians and have Italian names, and their Argentine citizenship is not advertised to the public here.

Premier Mussolini recently prohibited further importation of players, but found that this would make for gross inequalities among the various teams of the country, and so lifted the ban temporarily to allow all teams to fit themselves up with enough Argentines to be able to play other strong teams.

London — (IP)—The combined Yale-Harvard track team this summer defeated the combined Oxford-Cambridge tracksters with a score of 7½ to 4½. The event was the tenth of its kind, and the victory gave the Americans six wins over their British rivals in the series.

New York — (IP)—Speaking before the Eastern Association for the selection of football officials here recently, Major John L. Griffith, commissioner of the Western Conference expressed the belief that while football might not draw as many fans this year as in previous years, he expected fully as much interest in the sport throughout the country.

Pittsburg — (IP)—Henry Smith Pritchett, president of the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching, warned colleges in his annual report this summer that college exploitation of football as a college money-making game, would lead to governments taxing colleges as profit-making organizations.

Think Nothing of It

South Carolina beat Duke, 7 to 0. Think nothing of it. Last year the Gamecocks beat Duke 22 to 0, in the season's debut. Then what happened? The remainder of Duke's schedule read like this: Duke 32, Virginia 0; Duke 12, Davidson 0; Duke 18, Navy 0; Duke 14, Wofford 0; Duke 12, Villa Nova 6; Duke 14, KENTUCKY 7; Duke 18, North Carolina State 0; Duke 13, Wake Forest 13; Duke 14, Washington and Lee 0; Duke 0, North Carolina 0. No other defeats.

And what did South Carolina do? They lost to some of the weakest teams in the South, including Georgia Tech, 45 to 0; Clemson, 20 to 7; Furman, 14 to 0, and Alabama Poly, 25 to 7.

Duke seems to have a first-game complex. Maybe the Gamecocks hold the proverbial jinx. Maybe there's a skeleton in the closet. Or a nigger in the woodpile. But whether or no, don't start pointing your finger at Duke and Wallace Wade.

Uncle Dan Says We're Still Amongst 'Em

In a copyrighted article in the Atlanta Constitution we find that Col. Dan McGugin, Vanderbilt coach, says that Tennessee has the best chance of any team in the Southern conference to go through the season undefeated. And Col. Dan ought to know. Tennessee beat Vandy 13 to 0, last year, and the Tennessee Rats beat his freshman team 50 to 0.

McGugin names his "big nine," which he believes will be on top at the end of the season. And they include Alabama, Tennessee, Georgia, Georgia Tech, Florida, Tulane, North Carolina, KENTUCKY, and Vanderbilt. Kentucky plays three of the "big nine."

Uncle Dan says that of teams making the greatest relative progress are Tulane, Florida, North Carolina and KENTUCKY. We're still in the running, it seems.

He Would Even Steal Our Traditions

This from Ralph McGill in his "Break of Day" column:
".....The mob of students at Alabama—more than 4,500 registering in one day—Frank Thomas, head coach, looking over the freshmen—The most beautiful co-eds in the South are at the Capstone—And how they swarm about the student union!—One hardened newspaper man who moaned, 'Oh, to be 18 years old and a freshman at Alabama!'"

McGill has been touring Southern Conference schools for the Atlanta institution, BUT HE DIDN'T COME TO KENTUCKY. Hence his unqualified statement regarding beautiful co-eds.

Geometric Heroism

By Jove (Apologies to E. Fields)

The Geometry book is covered with dust,
But quiet and still it stands;
The chewed fountain pen is covered with rust,
Alone by a dry ink stand.
Time was when they all were used,
And a problem worked here and there,
But that was before our hero knew
Of the football cry in the air.

"Aw, come on out, it's fun," they said,
So amidst their calls and noise,
He jerked the Frosh cap from the unmade bed
And joined with the other boys.
And as soon as he heard the gay pep song,
He forgot all his books so true,
And now he stays out ever so long,
A wild Kitten, dressed in blue.

But faithful to the new hero they stand,
Each in its same old place,
Awaiting the touch of his impatient hand,
And the scowl of his worried face.
They wonder, as waiting the long weeks alone
In an inch of dust by the chair,
What has become of the boy now unknown,
Since he sighed, and put them there.

Several days ago, smoke was seen coming forth from the shrubbery around a porch in Rose Lane. A startled house keeper rushed forth to investigate, wildly wondering where the nearest fire box was. Hastily parting the bushes, she suddenly stopped in astonishment, as a small voice said, "Whatcha Want?" There, at her feet sat a small, red headed, freckle-faced boy about four years old, and he was majestically smoking a cigarette, emitting great clouds of gray smoke. 'Twas none other than Billy Boles, son of our famed "Daddy" Boles, and we wonder what Daddy said when Billy was brought forcibly homeward?

Jack Jean Leads in Win Over Marshall

said "no" and that ended the matter.

Going into the last period the young cats were still one point behind. The Big Green had possession of the ball and immediately started a march to the goal, but the backs fumbled twice and this relapse seemed to give Marshall new life. They started a new attempt to score, but Pierce fumbled and Jean recovered for the hosts. Barney tossed a 20-yard pass to Rupert, who eluded the enemy and slid four or five yards over the goal for the second freshman score. Barney's place-kick for the extra point was wide and the score was 12-7 in favor of the greenlings. The game ended shortly after the final score was made and left a hysterical crowd still yelling for Jack Jean and his Kitten companions.

Bad breaks robbed the Kittens of two or three more touchdowns. Jack Jean made a sixty-five yard dash for a touchdown but was called back because some of his teammates were offside. Another time a Kitten blocked a Marshall punt on the enemy's 20-yard line, when the Huntington team had to gain 20 yards for a first down, but a Marshall man recovered the ball for a Marshall first down. Then again a Kentucky man intercepted a Marshall pass, only to fumble it after going a few steps and the ball was recovered by the foe.

Outside of the futile long run made by Jean, the longest run of the evening was made by Saunders, sub Kentucky frosh quarterback, who snatched 47 yards in the third period. This boy Saunders relieved Barney late in the second quarter when the Ashland flash injured his knee on an attempted long dash around one of the flanks. In Saunders, "Prib" revealed to the fans a potential field general of no mean ability.

Incidentally, this was the first game of football that has been played in Lexington this season, and was also the only night game that will be played here. A good crowd of approximately 2,500 persons saw the tussle, one of the largest that has ever witnessed a freshman football game.

Although earlier in the season the Marshall gridders were billed as Reserves, the West Virginians played only freshmen in Saturday's encounter.

Changes Announced
In Staff of Guignol

Additions and changes to the staff of the Guignol theater for the current season were announced Monday afternoon by Prof. Frank Fowler, director. The entire property staff will be under the direction of Virginia Boyd. Her assistants are: Marjorie Weaver, Agnes Fitzgerald, Martha Carlton, Lucy Shropshire, Annette Newlin, Jane Mathews, Ann Thomas Denton, and Elizabeth Montague.

Other changes announced are in the cast of "Let Us Be Gay," first play planned by the theater for the season. Christine Johnson will play the part of "Dierdre," a role in which Justine White had previously been cast. Alfred Andrews will take the part of "Wallace Grainger," a part vacated by Hugh Maguire. Edward Bixby will play the role of "Williams."

Sally Jesse and Jesse Lillard Bond have been selected to do the designing and costumes for the Guignol.

Prince, N. J., (IP)—Princeton this fall will dedicate a new scientific building erected in memory of Dean Henry Burchard Fine, former Princeton mathematician. One of the features of the structure is the mathematical equations and geometric figures which appear in the stained-glass windows.

ARMY, KENTUCKY
WILL NOT CLASH

An attempt to schedule a game for 1932 with the Army failed because the service team has already scheduled its full list of major teams. Negotiations for the 1932 game came to a close Saturday when "Daddy" Boles received word from Major Fleming, of the Army, explaining West Point's schedule.

At first it was thought that there might be a place on the Army's schedule for Kentucky, but when Major Fleming discussed it with Coach Sasse he was told that the Army could not take on any more major teams for 1932, and that only let-down games could be scheduled. The possibility of a game to be played in 1933 was not mentioned. The Wildcat schedule for 1932 is most complete, and a start has been made on the 1933 list.

The 1932 schedule follows:

October 1—Open
October 8—Georgia Tech at Atlanta
October 15—Washington and Lee at Lexington, Ky.
October 22—V. P. I., place undecided.
October 29—Alabama at Lexington
November 5—Duke at Durham
November 12—Tulane at Lexington
November 24—Tennessee at Knoxville.

V. M. I.

Lexington, Va., Sept. 26—Victor "Turkey" Chaitain, held out for injuries at the start, entered the game in the fourth quarter to intercept a pass and race twenty-five yards for a touchdown, giving the University of Richmond its first victory over Virginia Military Institute in a number of years. The score was 7 to 0.

Denver—(IP)—Stanley M. Moore, student at the Michigan College of Mines, was killed here by a gangster who picked him up as a hitchhiker.

New Ruling Governs
Cross Country Meet

The annual cross country meet, sponsored yearly by the Intramural department of the university, got under way yesterday, with the initial workout of the season being held by the managers in charge.

There were a total of 86 men entered in the event, representing the 17 fraternities on the campus and a group of independents. Seventy-nine fraternity men and seven independents were numbered among the entrants for the event.

A fine field contested in the event last year, and a close race resulted. Although very little is known of the entrants in this year's event, a fierce struggle is expected. Last year's race was won by H. Baker, Phi Sigma Kappa; with the others in the order named: B. Masie, C. Gottlieb, C. Mahan, H. Hanna.

The routine for the event is quite different from that followed last year. Each man entered must pass a physical examination before he may participate in the final race. Also, each entry must report at the gate each time he practices, and he must run the route nine times to become eligible for the meet.

Valuable team trophies will be given those teams finishing first, second and third; while individual medals will be given to the first team men to finish the course.

A new course has been mapped out this year and is said to be extremely difficult. Entrants start at the east side of the baseball screen on Stoll field; they then go out the gate to the roadway, down the roadway to the creek and jump it, and then follow the stream to Limestone street, south on Limestone to the Agricultural building, past the hot house, back across the campus, through the large ravine and past the administration building; the course then follows the signs past the women's gymnasium and back to the start, which is also the finish.

Debating Tryouts
To Be Held Tonight

Because of the unusually large number of students applying for tryouts in debating Friday evening, Prof. W. R. Sutherland, university debate coach, was compelled to ask part of the group to postpone their speaking engagement until tonight. The tryouts scheduled for this evening, as were the others, will be held in room 231 of McVey hall at 7:30 o'clock.

Those listed for tryouts are: Martin Bertram, Philip Ardery, Elmer

Lambert, W. F. Rhinehart, Burnam Pearlman, John C. Cramer, Roscoe Morgan, Boone Hall, James Y. Curtis, John T. Sweeney, Clinton, Gardner, Logan Ratliff, W. O. Miller, and J. R. Mays. The first seven of these had their tryouts last Friday. The others will comprise the group that will speak tonight.

At the National Air Races in Cleveland this summer Lieut. Al Williams stunted his plane as directed by the audience through a radio hook-up. Another stunter waltzed his plane in time with dance music broadcast from the ground.
